

NOTICE OF HEALTH INFORMATION PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

The Urology Center of Colorado (TUCC) is required by law to maintain the privacy of your health information and is strongly committed to maintaining your privacy. Additionally, TUCC is required to provide you with a notice of its legal duties and privacy practices. TUCC will not use or disclose your health information except as described in this Notice. This Notice applies to all of the health information generated by TUCC, as well as information we receive from others, including health care providers and health plans.

USES AND DISCLOSURES OF YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION

TREATMENT: TUCC may use and disclose your health information to provide and coordinate your healthcare treatment. We may disclose all or part of your health information to your attending physician, consulting physicians, nurses, technicians, or other health care providers who have a legitimate need for such information in your care and treatment. TUCC may also use or disclose your health information to tell you about or recommend treatment alternatives that may interest or benefit you, or to remind you about an appointment.

PAYMENT: TUCC may use and disclose health information about you for payment purposes, including determining coverage, billing, claims management, medical data processing, and reimbursement. The information may be released to an insurance company, third party or other entity (or their authorized representatives) involved in the payment of your medical bill, and may include copies or excerpts of your medical record that are necessary for payment of your account. For example, a bill sent to a third party payer may include information that identifies you, your diagnosis, and the procedures and supplies used.

ROUTINE HEALTHCARE OPERATIONS: TUCC may use and disclose your health information for routine healthcare operations, including but not limited to quality assurance, medical review, internal auditing, licensing or credentialing activities of TUCC, and educational purposes. TUCC may engage outside companies ("business associates") to carry out certain aspects of these healthcare operations. TUCC may need to disclose your health information to the business associates to enable them to perform their duties. Examples of business associates include, but are not limited to, medical transcriptionists, third-party billing companies, accountants, and lawyers. TUCC requires the business associate to also sign an agreement to protect the confidentiality of your health information.

USES AND DISCLOSURES REQUIRING YOUR AUTHORIZATION

TUCC will obtain a written authorization from you before it uses or discloses your protected health information, unless a particular use or disclosure is expressly permitted or required by law without your authorization. We must obtain your authorization to use or disclose your protected health information for certain marketing purposes, for fundraising, or to sell your information. You have the right to revoke any authorization you have previously given by submitting a written statement of revocation to TUCC, however, we cannot take back any disclosures we have already made based on your authorization.

USES AND DISCLOSURES FOR FUNDRAISING PURPOSES

Should you authorize TUCC to do so, we may use and disclose to The Urology Center of Colorado Foundation (TUCC Foundation) certain aspects of your health information to contact you in connection with fundraising for TUCC Foundation. TUCC Foundation is a 501(c)(3) charity dedicated to advancing urologic care in the Rocky Mountain region through advocacy, research, education and patient support. All fundraising communications regarding TUCC Foundation will include instructions for opting out of receiving further fundraising communications.

USES AND DISCLOSURES TO WHICH YOU MAY OBJECT

TUCC may disclose your health information to a friend or family member who is involved in your medical care and for disaster relief purposes. If you have any objection to the use and disclosure of your health information in this manner, please tell us.

USES AND DISCLOSURES THAT ARE REQUIRED OR PERMITTED WITHOUT AUTHORIZATION

REGULATORY AGENCIES: TUCC may disclose your health information to government and certain private health oversight agencies, e.g., the Department of Public Health and Environment, the Joint Commission, or the Board of Medical Examiners, for activities authorized by law, including, but not limited to, licensure, certification, audits, investigations and inspections. These activities are necessary to monitor compliance with the requirements of government programs.

LAW ENFORCEMENT/LITIGATION: TUCC may disclose your health information for law enforcement purposes, judicial and arbitration proceedings, and other disputes consistent with applicable law.

PUBLIC HEALTH: As required by law, TUCC may disclose your health information to public health or legal authorities charged with preventing or controlling disease, injury or disability.

WORKERS' COMPENSATION: TUCC may disclose health information about you for workers' compensation or similar programs. These programs provide benefits for work-related injuries or illnesses.

MILITARY/VETERANS: TUCC may disclose your health information as required by military command authorities, if you are a member of the armed forces.

CORONERS: Upon your death, TUCC may disclose your health information to a coroner or medical examiner for purposes of identifying you or determining a cause of death, and to funeral directors as necessary to carry out their duties.

NATIONAL SECURITY: TUCC may disclose health information about you to authorized officials for intelligence, counterintelligence, and any other national security activities authorized by law.

RESEARCH: Tucc may use and disclose your health information for reviews preparatory to research and, if approved by a privacy board or institutional review board, research studies.

AS OTHERWISE REQUIRED BY LAW: Tucc will disclose your health information in any situation in which such disclosure is required by law (e.g., child abuse, domestic abuse, or to prevent harm to you or other individuals).

YOUR RIGHTS RELATED TO YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION

Although all records concerning your treatment obtained at the Tucc are the property of the Tucc, you have the following rights concerning your health information:

RIGHT TO CONFIDENTIAL COMMUNICATIONS: You have the right to receive confidential communications of your health information by alternative means or at alternative locations. For example, you may request that the Tucc only contact you at work or by mail.

RIGHT TO INSPECT AND COPY: You generally have the right to inspect and copy your health information in paper and electronic format, except as restricted by law.

RIGHT TO AMEND: You have the right to request an amendment or correction to your health information. If we agree that an amendment or correction is appropriate, we will ensure that the amendment or correction is attached to your medical record.

RIGHT TO AN ACCOUNTING: You have the right to obtain a statement of the disclosures that have been made of your health information, except for the purposes of treatment, payment or routine operations (as detailed above), or if you have provided an authorization.

RIGHT TO REQUEST RESTRICTIONS: You have the right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of your health information. Tucc generally is not required to abide by your requested restrictions. However, if you pay in full out of pocket for a health care item or service, we must comply with your request to restrict the disclosure of health information related to that health care item or service to a health plan for payment or health care operations purposes.

RIGHT TO RECEIVE COPY OF THIS NOTICE: You have the right to receive a paper copy of this Notice, upon request.

RIGHT TO REVOKE AUTHORIZATION: You have the right to revoke your authorization to use or disclose your health information, except to the extent that action has already been taken in reliance on your consent or authorization.

RIGHT TO RECEIVE CERTAIN NOTICES: You have a right to receive notice of certain breaches of the security of certain protected health information.

FOR MORE INFORMATION REGARDING HOW TO EXERCISE THESE RIGHTS

If you have questions or would like more information regarding any of the rights listed above, please contact Tucc's Chief Operating Officer at the address or telephone number listed below.

IF YOU BELIEVE THAT YOUR RIGHTS HAVE BEEN VIOLATED

You may file a complaint with Tucc, or with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services. To file a complaint with Tucc, please contact:

Chief Operating Officer
The Urology Center of Colorado
2777 Mile High Stadium Circle
Denver, CO 80211
303-825-8822

All complaints must be submitted in writing. There will be no retaliation for filing a complaint.

CHANGES TO THIS NOTICE

Tucc will abide by the terms of the Notice currently in effect. Tucc reserves the right to change the terms of this Notice at any time. Any new notice provisions will be effective for all protected health information that it maintains. You have the right to review this Notice at any time. Tucc will make its Notice, including any revisions, available at Tucc and on the Tucc web site (www.tucc.com).

THE EFFECTIVE DATE

The effective date of this notice is September 23, 2013